

DAVIES SET TO RETURN

BOBBY DAVIES, who has missed recent Wycombe Wanderers' matches, because of a family illness, may return to the side for the table-topping clash against Isthmian League champions Enfield at Loakes Park tomorrow (Saturday).

With Enfield having already clinched the championship with nearly a month of the season remaining, the main interest centres on who will finish second. Wanderers did themselves a favour with a great 3-0 win over Dagenham on Tuesday to go into the runners-up spot by one point.

Victory over Enfield, would not only provide the Blues with revenge for their 3-0 defeat back in October, but would boost their chances of finishing second for the third year running.
